

Sign up for Your Annual APALA Membership

Stay connected to the Asian American and Pacific Islander (AAPI) Labor Movement by becoming an APALA member today! Your membership will help empower working families through support of the APALA Organizing Institute, Every Vote Counts Political Program, and will strengthen labor & community alliances. Together, we can grow youth and worker leaders, and educate communities about the important role AAPI workers play in communities across the country.

Stay connected to the pulse of the Asian American & Pacific Islander Labor Movement

Your membership and investment will continue to support:

Chapter building: The foundation and heart of APALA's work lies within each APALA chapter and at-large membership. Your membership directly contributes to the chapter's growth and sustainability.

Organizing Institute: This three-day training functions as a pipeline for AAPI union organizers, researchers, and leadership to build power for AAPI working people in the Labor Movement.

Young Leaders Council: Consisting of youth representatives from across the country, the YLC educates working people under 35 about the labor movement to be active agents of change in their communities.

We use the information you provide about yourself to send you newsletters, monthly updates, press releases, digital actions, conference and convention call letters, fundraising asks, membership sign up reminders, meeting reminders as well as the latest information on campaigns APALA is supporting and your role in helping to build AAPI power. The majority of the information is viewable only by national staff or your chapter leaders. You may receive marketing or promotional materials via email or text if you opt-in to receive them. Your information will not be sold to a third party for marketing purposes. If you are a member of a union, your union may also have access to the information that you provide to APALA.
